

Artefacts, paintings, drawings, perfumes inspired by food and wine and created to stimulate the senses of sight and smell

IN TWO SENSES
Food and wine visions and inhalations
MÚSES, European Academy of Essences
Via Sant'Andrea 53, 12038 Savigliano (CN)

After the success at MIAAO in Turin, the exhibition DOPPIO SENSO continues at MÚSES- European Academy of Essences, in Savigliano. To celebrate the event, Thursday 21st June, from 6 pm, MÚSES was open to the public until 11.00 pm. The exhibition will be held until 30th September and it will be accessible during the museum opening hours.

Organized by MIAAO and MÚSES, the summer exhibition has been conceived as part of the calendar of events related to the Bocuse d'or Europe, the world haute cuisine competition that this year was held in Turin.

IN TWO SENSES - Wine and food visions and inhalations includes a set of works of art and design involving both sight and smell, specially created for the occasion by Piedmontese pioneers such as Corrado Bonomi, Luisa Bocchietto, Titti Garelli, Franco Giletta and Plinio Martelli. Beside the art works, glass scent diffusers allow visitors to inhale traditional and eccentric gourmand aromas: from the fragrances of sugared almonds and fruits to the smell of bacon and barbecued meat.

On the occasion of the opening on Thursday, June 21st, the artist Corrado Bonomi set up a street food stall and "served" - at the request of the participants and according to taste - some "pizzas" painted on the spot on take-away boxes, precious souvenirs for the lucky recipients.

In addition to the exhibition IN TWO SENSES, MÚSES is already hosting works of art on the theme of sensoriality realized by the international artists of the Creative Europe project (2014-2020) AMuSE. Young emerging artists from Italy, Malta, the Netherlands and Lithuania after an artistic residence in Savigliano left their installations inspired by senses at Palazzo Taffini enriching the museum collection.
